

Centre for Existential Practice - March/April workshops

A reminder: The Inter-Relationship workshop is being held on Saturday 14 March. There are still a few places available.

Register by clicking here.

Our next workshop is on Group Leadership on Friday 17 April 2009

Adam McLean will be the facilitator. Adam has many years of experience working as a group leader and more recently has added a more explicit existential perspective to his work.

This workshop is highly experiential and a great opportunity to learn about the Yalom Interpersonal model of group facilitation with Adam's particular existential perspective. At some point in our working lives, we either find ourselves as a participant in a group or in the position to lead one. This might be directly related to our counselling or coaching practice or in a workplace team environment. Learning how groups function and how best to facilitate them, can be of great benefit in a variety of situations.
