

"TO BE IS TO BE WITH"

reconnect through: breath body sensation environment

GANZ 2008 will provide a therapeutic space in a community setting for Gestalt Practitioners and friends to reconnect through breath, body, sensation and environment.

Come explore the nature and meaning of embodied experience as a relational phenomenon in a natural and nurturing community setting.

Where: Ballina Beach Resort. www.ballinabeachresort.com.au

When: Thursday 11th to Sunday 14th September 2008

This is a residential setting for enhancing community exploration of our theme through workshops, presentations, and whole community experiences.

The invitation to participate in this residential conference is extended to practitioners and students of gestalt and other body oriented psychotherapies in the interest of sharing with the wider field.

We invite members to consider presenting papers and/or workshops that support the conference theme, submission guidelines are available at www.ganz.org.au/ganz2008

Out of respect for our relationship with the environment this conference will be carbon neutral.
